

A Day with

Etgar Keret

Thursday, April 18, 2013

Join us for all of the events listed below:

Film Screening and Discussion

12:30pm–2:00pm

Innis Town Hall, 2 Sussex Drive

Clips from the following films will be shown: Skin Deep (Directed by Etgar Keret and Ran Tal), A Buck's Worth (Directed by Etgar Keret and Animated by Tatia Rosenthal), What About Me? (Directed by Etgar Keret and Shira Geffen). Etgar Keret will comment on each of the clips.

Talking Pictures Comic Jam

2:00pm–6:00pm

L'Espresso, 321 Bloor Street West

A “comic jam” is a collaborative process where a narrative comic page is created by many minds and pens (or found images), working together in sequence. Anyone can do this; if you've read a story, a comic, or had an idea, you'll be able to take part. Hosted by Talking Pictures and comic artists Ruth Tait, Dalton Sharp. Etgar Keret will be available to sign books at the beginning and will return to see the completed art work.

Warsaw House: A Public Lecture

8:00pm–9:30pm

O.I.S.E. Auditorium, 252 Bloor Street West

On the eve of the 70th anniversary of the beginning of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising, Etgar Keret will read from his own work and talk about his experience in the Warsaw House, an art installation less than 5 ft. wide between two buildings in which he briefly lived. A book signing will follow the talk.
