Holocaust Feature Films:

FREE MEN:
Story of how the rector of a Paris Mosque saved Jews during the Nazi occupation of France. May 9, 5:30 pm at Sheppard Centre; May 11, 3:15 pm at Bloor.

THE LAST BUTTERFLY:
1990 film about a French mime artist who is blackmailed by the Nazis into staging a children's performance at Terezin. May 7, 8:30 pm at Bloor.

MY BEST ENEMY:
A Caper film about the Nazis search for an authentic Michelangelo drawing that a Jewish family has hidden. May 12, 9:30 pm at the Al Green.

REMEMBRANCE:
A Jewish woman tries to find the Polish lover she met in a concentration camp and who saved her life. May 9, 4:00 pm at Bloor; May 13, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre.

SIMON AND THE OAKS:
Young Swedish boy connects with a Jewish boy his own age and the two families become close. May 13, 12:00 noon at Al Green.

WUNDERKINDER:
Jewish siblings are violin virtuosos who befriend a young German girl with the same passion for music. After the Nazis invade their small Ukrainian town this friendship is tested. May 8, 5:00 pm at Sheppard Centre; May 11, 2:15 pm at Al Green.
Holocaust Documentary Films:

AN ARTICLE OF HOPE:
Story of Israel's first Astronaut, Ilan Ramon, and the tiny torah scroll he took into space with him.
May 9, 1:00 pm at Bloor

BORN IN A CONCENTRATION CAMP:
7 mothers give birth in a concentration camp, survive and save their children. Guests include Miriam Rosenthal, one of the mothers and Dr. Leslie Rosenthal, whose son was born in a camp.
May 9, 5:30 pm at Al Green

THE BOYS OF TEREZIN:
A story of the teenage residents of Home One, a concentration camp within Terezin, who created an underground publication which chronicled their daily lives. Guest is GEORGE BRADY, one of these boys who survived.
May 8, 3:00 pm at Al Green

THE FLAT:
Winner of the Toronto Jewish Film Festival's David A. Stein Award as best documentary to make its Canadian premiere. The filmmaker's family discovers their grandparents had been close friends with a high-ranking Nazi official.
May 10, 5:30 pm at Sheppard Centre; May 13, 2:45 pm at Al Green

IN HEAVEN UNDERGROUND:
The Weissensee Cemetery on Berlin is the largest Jewish cemetery in Europe and survived the Nazi rule of Germany.
May 8, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

IN SEARCH OF YIDDISH:
A Russian poet/singer/scientist explores the fate of Yiddish culture in Russia and searches for any vestiges of this culture in Belarus and Moldava that might have survived the Nazi occupation.
May 6, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre
LOST LOVE DIARIES:
Ellis and Bernie, a young Jewish couple in Amsterdam before World War II, were separated by the war. 65 years later Ellis unravels the mystery of what happened to her first love.
May 7, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

MEMORY AFTER BELSEN:
Producer Joshua Greene shows clips of his work-in-progress that reveals the challenges to Holocaust awareness in art and education. After his presentation, a panel discussion will follow.
May 6, 8:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

NICKY'S FAMILY:
The story of Nicholas Winton the Englishman who rescued hundreds of Jewish children just before the outbreak of World War II. CBC reporter Joseph Schlesinger, one of the children Winton saved, will conduct a Question & Answer with the audience following the screening.
May 9, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

A PEOPLE UNCOUNTED:
The story of the Nazi genocide against the Roma people (Gypsies). The filmmakers will attend the screening.
May 8, 8:00 pm at Al Green

PORTRAIT OF WALLY:
Traces the ownership of Egon Schiele's portrait and the 13 year battle by the heirs of the Jewish owner to obtain the return of the painting.
May 7, 8:00 pm at Al Green; May 10, 3:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

SIX MILLION AND ONE:
Filmmaker David Fisher and his siblings travel to Austria to follow their father's journey of survival during the Holocaust. David Fisher will attend the screening.
May 6, 7:45 pm at Al Green; May 7, 7:30 pm at Sheppard Centre
TORN:
Story of a Polish priest who discovers he was born Jewish who tries to reconnect with his Jewish roots.
May 10, 1:00 pm at Bloor

THE TRIAL OF ADOLF EICHMANN:
A comprehensive and compelling film on the trial of Adolph Eichmann, giving a detailed account of Eichmann's capture, his interrogation and trial.
May 7, 6:00 pm at Al Green; May 13, 4:00 pm at Sheppard Centre

THE LAST FLIGHT OF PETR GINZ:
Little was known about child prodigy Petr Ginz until Israeli astronaut Ilan Ramon carried one of his drawings aboard the ill-fated Columbia space shuttle mission. Ginz completed 5 novels, short stories and a diary about the Nazi occupation of Prague – before he was killed at age 16
Wednesday May 9 1:00PM Bloor Cinema