

Sarah and Chaim Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre UJA Federation of Greater Toronto

The Sarah and Chaim Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre is dedicated to preserving the memories of the victims, honouring the legacies of those who survived and educating the community so that the Holocaust will serve as a warning to future generations about the dangers of antisemitism, racism, intolerance and apathy. Through education and remembrance, we safeguard the lessons of the Holocaust in order to nurture an inclusive society.

Each year the Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre engages over 80,000 students, educators and community members through a vast array of programs and events.

Thank you for choosing to visit our Centre as part of your curriculum.

Below you will find general information about our Centre, bus parking and directions.

Bus Parking and Directions

Pick-up/Drop-off Instructions for School Groups Arriving by Bus

A drop-off and pick-up-lay-by is designated immediately to the right of the campus entrance. Buses unload here. Visitors proceed on foot north to 4600 Bathurst Street, one half-block from the traffic light. Please buzz Security on the intercom to enter.

Buses may wait in the lay-by or proceed to the security booth at the bottom of the hill for further instructions on where to wait and/or turn around and exit the site.

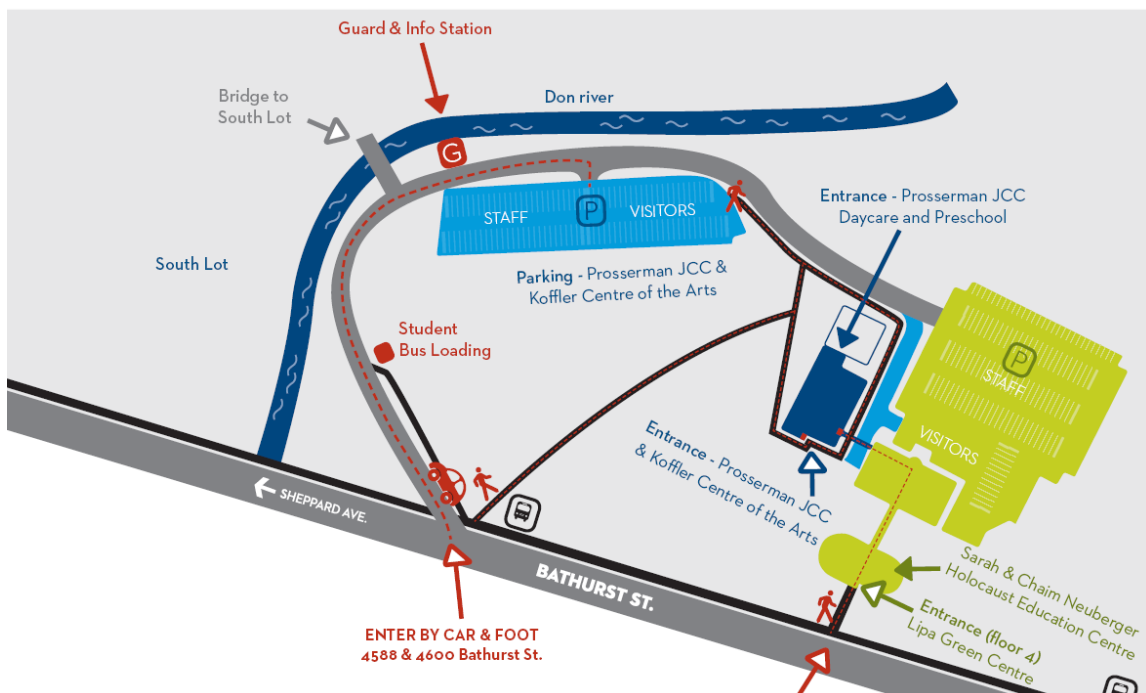

You may meet your group at the bus lay-by after their visit.

Students must remain in the museum and its immediate vicinity and may not congregate in the Lipa Green lower lobby.

Buses will not be permitted to enter past the Sherman Campus Security.

Please obey instructions of security guards.
